

CHRIS M. WRIGHT, CPP
The Wright Group
2011

Background

It was while at Pinkerton, ICA and BackgroundsPlus in the positions of Managing Director that Chris developed programs and procedures for performing high volume background investigations and the tracking of general investigations to facilitate their control and profitability. These programs and procedures help to insure consistency, profitability and a high level of quality assurance in the performance of large volume background requirements and individual comprehensive backgrounds.

During her security career, Chris developed a keen interest and acknowledged expertise in workplace violence programs and issues of privacy in society. She has created programs to prevent workplace violence, which addresses train-the-trainer seminars, conflict resolution, conflict management strategies and executive briefings. The seminars developed have been utilized by a number of Fortune 500 companies and are part of the curriculum of the three-day seminar provided by the American Management Association for which Chris is a seminar trainer. Her conference and seminar presentations stress the importance of pre-employment screening for employers intent on reducing the risk of workplace violence and fraud. Chris is a published author in the area of privacy and identity theft.
